

An aerial photograph of a golf course, likely at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. A red line is drawn across the map, possibly indicating a boundary or a specific route. The map includes several icons: a red square with a white dot, a green square with a white triangle, a blue circle with a white star, and a white square with a black cross. The map also shows the names of streets: Gerhart Ave, Lincoln Hwy, and USA Topo. The map is oriented with North at the top.
